- B. To advise prospective sellers or listing brokerages with whom the Buyer's Brokerage is negotiating on the Buyer's behalf, that the Buyer's Brokerage is the agent of the Buyer; and
- C. If a property in which the Buyer is interested is not listed with a real estate brokerage, the Buyer's Brokerage may enter into a fee agreement with the seller but will not, in any event, act as an agent of the seller without the prior written consent of the Buyer (see Clause 6).

If the Buyer and the seller do not consent to the Buyer's Brokerage acting as their limited dual agent, the Buyer's Brokerage will, with respect to the property, cease acting as the agent of the Buyer but may continue to act as the agent of the seller.

INFORMATION ABOUT THE EXCLUSIVE BUYER'S AGENCY CONTRACT

THIS INFORMATION IS INCLUDED FOR THE ASSISTANCE OF THE PARTIES ONLY. IT DOES NOT FORM PART OF THE CONTRACT AND SHOULD NOT AFFECT THE PROPER INTERPRETATION OF ANY OF ITS TERMS.

1. The Exclusive Buyer's Agency Contract when signed by both parties is a legally binding contract. READ IT CAREFULLY. The parties should ensure that everything that is agreed to is in writing.
2. Buying real estate can be a very rewarding experience. Property owners generally experience pride of ownership and in many cases a financial gain over the long term. The process of buying real estate is relatively complex and for this reason many buyers seek the help and professional expertise of a licensed real estate brokerage.
3. It is recommended that the relationship between the buyer and the real estate brokerage should be in writing in the form of a Exclusive Buyer's Agency Contract. This will ensure that both parties will have a complete understanding of their rights and responsibilities. Each party will know what they can expect from the other and what is expected from them. This is similar to the common practice of sellers entering into a listing contract when selling a property. Real estate brokerages cooperate with each other to bring buyers and sellers together. This cooperation will help bring you the best selection of properties which meet your individual requirements.
4. The topic of compensation to the real estate brokerage should be thoroughly discussed. The discussion should include the amount of compensation, sources of payment and when the payment is to be made.
5. REALTORS are trained to provide valuable assistance to buyers in the following areas:
 1. Identifying desirable types of properties to acquire
 2. Locating properties available to view and consider
 3. Preliminary investigation and timely information gathering
 4. Viewing properties and providing guidance and advice
 5. Selecting the right property on which to make an offer
 6. Preparing a legally binding Contract of Purchase and Sale
 7. Negotiating favourable terms and conditions
 8. Assisting in arranging suitable financing if necessary
 9. Assisting in arranging property inspections and other needed services
 10. Assisting in the completion and possession process

These and other services can be documented on a schedule attached to the contract.
